Foreign Summary.

Ex-Secretary Gove was never more popular than on his resignation.

The Connecticut census shows a population of 468,881, a gain of 11,000 for the past 10 years.

Dr. Hamilton's week mail paper, the Atlanta (Ga.) Standard-Advertiser, has died an ignoble death in the hands of the sheriff.

The Government of Honduras has pardoned Col. Miller, who was engaged under Walker in the rebellion on the city of Truxillo.

The illustrious German savant, statesman, diplomat, linguist, critic, philosopher, and theologian, Gustavus Christianus Charles Julius Bösen, died at Bonn, on the 28th of November, in the 70th year of his age.

Each of us may be said to swallow, on an average, half a pint of water in a glass, or about three hundred and six-tenths our own weight of it in a lifetime. In fact, we are in substance little else than a mass of liquid.

The accumulation of cotton at Memphis is estimated to be of the value of three millions of dollars. Not a half of it can be moved. The banks refuse to expand, and as a consequence the cotton sticks.

The excitement in the cotton houses has produced an embryo panic in the guano business. A New London (Conn.) firm has received letters from several of the principal shipping interests, stating that they shall no longer guarantee agents.

The valorous Wigfall, of the South, says "there is a crowd here in Europe that would have us in fear, and acknowledge allegiance to—Cotton!" What a sight it will be to see the sovereigns of Europe bowing in allegiance to the Southern Confederacy!

The widow of the late Capt. Jack Wilson, who commanded the Lady Elgin, is receiving the kind consideration of many. A family is being raised for her benefit toward which Detroit has contributed over $500, Buffalo $700, and Chicago $300.

C. A. Washburn, editor of the San Francisco Times, is taking his departure recently for the east, was presented with a magnificent watch, worth $1,400.

The chain is composed of thirteen links of massive gold, each of the thickness of a $20 piece, and on the end is a seal of quartz from the mines of Quartz Fremont.

Mr. James G. Arnold, of Worcester, England, has invented a machine which performs all of the operations of making envelopes at once, taking sheets of paper of proper shape, and turning out complete envelopes in packages of twenty-five, all ready to be put in bands and boxes.

Mr. Wright, the American Minister at Berlin, presented Thursday, November 29, as Thanksgiving Day, and invited a large company of Americans and foreigners to his house to dine. Specimens were made by the guests.

TERIBLE TRAGEDY.—The Fort Wayne (Ind.) News says, that a most terrible tragedy occurred at Adams County, a short time since. A woman about to burn herself, threw some boiling water into the face of her son, who, in his rage, struck his mother, placed an infant, and it was instantly scalded to death. The mother in her fit of frenzy, shot a chair, and inflicted a death blow upon the little girl. After realizing what she had done, she threw herself into the well, and was drowned.

NOTHING USEFUL.—Chief Justice Lewis and Gov. Parker, of Pennsylvania, were formerly journeymen printers, and during their entire time as apprentices, engaged in a printing office.

THE TRUSTY OF SLAVERY.—A bill has passed the Georgia Legislature, which provides that every free person of color who has reached the age of fourteen years may choose an owner and go into voluntary servitude for life; that parents may choose owners for their children, when the latter are under fourteen years of age, and that the free persons of color should be allowed to do so first. On May 1, 1862, who have taken no steps to select owners, shall be liable to seizure and sold as slaves for life.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer writes:—"Senator Trumbull is having his residence put in first-rate order for the reception of his expected guest, the President elect who is expected here in February. Mrs. Lincoln will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Edwards."

The Earl of Blessington, who is announced, as the Earl of 73, has played an important part in English politics for half a century. He has been in the cabinet a large portion of the time since 1828, having begun a Tory and ended a Liberal. He was generally respected as a man of stern integrity, large culture and admirable personal character.

A WONDERFUL GUN.—A new centrifugal gun was exhibited in Boston, recently. It is claimed by its inventor, Mr. Dicker, that it can be loaded with a powder charge in less than a half a minute, without powder or cap, simply by turning a crank like a coffee mill. The balls are fed into a funnel with a shovel, from which the gun feels it. It throws its shot singly but continuously, it rates equal to the cannon of 10,000 men.

THE NEW YORK JAPANESE SWINDELER.—The items of the Japanese bill of lading made public by the Post Office, the bill has been cut down to less than $60,000. Some of the details are for board of 75 Japanese, $17,910 or about $18 per day each; $2,120, for the Naval officers' board, being $54 per day each! For ball and supper, $38,563 is charged, and a further sum of $7,472 for decorations for the same. Other charges are $20 for clerks, $6,634 for steamer, $500 for passage, $723 for private baggage, $1,854 for carriage.

EUROPEAN.—M. Mariette, after uncovering the almost perfect workshop of an ancient Egyptian artisan, and finding a multitude of vases and statuettes, has just disengaged the mummy of an angel princess enclosed in a magnificent sarcophagus. But none of these objects are likely to reach Europe, as they are to be sent to the British Museum.

M. Mariette is working, having built in France an ornate palace in the purest Saracenic style, which is to be erected in Alexandria, and used as the national museum of Egypt, where such antiquities as M. Mariette may bring to light will be deposited.

COTTON IN PERU.—The New York Journal of Commerce says—"Considerable progress has been made in this city, within a few days in regard to the arrival of Peruvian cotton received via Panama. We understand that it is part of a shipment of 1,500 bales, most of which was consigned to Europe. The quality is very beautiful, and the samples shown would sell readily at 10 cents, and the price paid the same." The cotton from which it is taken is said to be a personal shrub in Peru, indigenous to the soil, the growth of which already extends over a considerable tract of country, and needing only a little labor in the way of cultivation, to yield large returns."

HEAVY DEPARALATION.—Mr. Goddard Bailey, who has charge of the Indian Trust Fund, confided to the Secretary of the Interior, at Washington, that he had been guilty of abstracting from that fund in bonds and coupons the enormous amount of $87,000! Mr. Bailey is a South Carolinian. The bonds were used to raise money for temporary purposes, and the panic had rendered the parties unable to be held to their word. The parties will be impeached upon her examination.—The name of Secretary Floyd is said to be among the number. It is also said that the funds were used by the Central Blockading club during the late election.

VERA-LIKE CANNIBALS.—Mr. Edwards, in his "Voyage up the Amazon," relates some comments on the cannibalism in the diet of his party. He says many are eaten in the region, and are esteemed beyond the wild game. When cooked, they make most delicious flesh, though the rules by which they are served up are not to be found in any of the numerous cook books. One of Mr. Edwards' party had a toothache, and was suffering from a sore throat, and the pain had rendered the parties unable to be held to their word. The parties will be impeached upon her examination.—The name of Secretary Floyd is said to be among the number. It is also said that the funds were used by the Central Blockading club during the late election.

THE LONDON NEWS states that Italian ladies report that the mass of the population of Rome is now suffering great privations, owing to the high price of bread, and that expedients of all kinds are being adopted by public and private charity to supply food for the poor.

The intelligence from Gaeta as to the progress of the siege is contradictory, but no new movement of importance is chronicled.

France the Second has issued a proclamation, calling on the garrison to defend the place to the last.

THE NEW YORK TIMES says that France has decided to indemnify the Belgians to consent to a suspension of hostilities in order that the negotiations for the surrender of Gaeta might be entered upon.

Viceroy Emmanuel contexts a condition which entitles France to a second representation to the Emperor, who replied that he should make no fresh appointments till Rome had accepted it.

The Bishop of Versailles sought an interview with the Emperor to try and make him feel the want of the chivalry of France, and to induce him to let him go. The Emperor listened to him patiently, with his cigar in his mouth, and at last said, "Monsieur, your distress does you credit, but the temporal power is no longer compatible with our civilization, and we must part with it, as I will give you my seal also." The Pope ceased to exist.

The Abbe Marey has offered his resignation to the Emperor, who replied that he should make no fresh appointments till Rome had accepted it.

The Paris correspondent of the Weekly Register (a Roman Catholic paper) says he has written to the Cardinal Archbishop of Paris, asking him to resign his place, and to be appointed instead to the ministry of the Interior. The cardinal has replied that if he resigned his civil offices he would resign his seat also. The Pope ceased to exist.
